Chocolate makers from Feeling 18 work in a cool environment all year round to produce high-quality chocolate. The rich, smooth, and moist nama chocolate, made with ingredients imported from France and Belgium, has become the signature product due to its silky texture. After mixing the cream and butter onto the chocolate, the chocolate needs to be chilled for 24 hours before dusted with fine cocoa powder. Because of the fresh cream, nama chocolate must be kept in the refrigerator at all times and it is best enjoyed fresh, within 4 days after being made. Feeling 18 makes every effort to preserve the quality of its products to welcome every guest.
